

WIN THIS WEEK

Triple treat

THREE of the biggest names in Kiwi music – Tim Finn, Bic Runga and Dave Dobbyn – perform together in concert this summer in The More FM Winery Tour and it includes Alana Estate in Martinborough on February 20. Courtesy of the promoters, we have three double passes to this sought-after gig. Not only that, guests include Boh Runga and Che Fu.

■ American Norah Jones is one of the biggest-selling singer-songwriters of the decade – her debut album sold 10 million copies. She cuts new ground on her latest album The Fall, working with cult indie musicians including Okkervil River's Will Sheff. We have five copies for readers to win.

■ Robbie Williams was one of the biggest Britpop stars of the late 90s and still the biggest crowd puller at Wellington's Westpac Stadium. But for much of this decade he's seemed lost. Not so on his new album Reality Killed the Video Star. We reckon it's his best album in the decade and we have five copies.

Found: Robbie Williams' mojo is back

■ French film Summer Hours, starring Juliette Binoche (Chocolat) and Jeremie Renier (The Vintner's Luck), sees divergent paths of three adult siblings collide after their mother, heiress to her uncle's exceptional 19th century art collection, dies suddenly, leaving them to come to terms with themselves and their differences. We have five double passes for lucky readers.

To enter, write your name, address, phone number and the page number where the competition appeared on the back of an envelope and send it to: Winery Draw, Norah Jones Draw, Robbie Williams Draw or Summer Hours Draw, Arts and Entertainment, PO Box 3741, Wellington, 6140, or email entertain@dompost.co.nz. Write the name of the draw in the subject line and the page number the competition appeared on, and your details in the email. Our mailbag closes at 9am, Tuesday, November 24.

Fresh: Norah Jones cuts new ground in The Fall.