TAUPO music lovers are in for a treat when Kiwi music legends Tim Finn, Bic Runga and Dave Dobbyn take the stage at the Unison amphitheatre on February 27.

The artists have already started rehearsals and promise a two-hour, back to back selection of all of their famous hits, songs that have secured them as New Zealand music icons.

Also joining the MoreFM Winery Tour 2010 line-up is Boh Runga who will be joined on stage by Supergroove front man and solo star Che Fu.

"You couldn't find a similarly talented line-up of artists to tour New Zealand together," Co-promoter Brent Eccles said.

"This will be our biggest and best winery tour yet. The Together In Concert tour we did with Tim, Bic and Dave in 2000 was one of the highlights of my career as a promoter."

"It was an incredible show. I can't wait to relive that magic in the stunning venues we visit on this tour. And Boh and Che together will blow everyone away. This year our tour party will be in excess of 70 people but as big as it is, we always strive to improve the event each year for the fans," Mr Eccles said.

"Demand for bus transport to the venues has grown as people want to leave the car at home, have a few wines and enjoy the night.

"We have more bus and ticket packages on offer in each region in 2010."

Tickets go on sale from Monday November 2 and are available through Ticketmaster.
